

NOTES FROM MS. TAYLOR

Congratulations to our very beloved and hard-working custodian, Chris Felton, who has been elected as Hartley's Non-instructional Employee of the Year. Students and staff alike adore Mr. Felton and appreciate all he does to keep our school safe and beautiful. His smile lights up our hallways every day, and his positive and supportive spirit make him a wonderful role model for our students.

I want to thank Mr. and Mrs. David Poston, parents of Alayna in Mrs. Rawitt's class, who are generously providing free fresh fruit for our students to enjoy in the cafeteria daily. This is a welcome, healthy addition to our hot lunch choices, and we are grateful for their gift.

Don't forget that school releases early on Friday, December 16, at 1:50, and students report back after the break on Tuesday, January 3rd. From the administrative team and staff, we wish all our Hartley families a holiday filled with joy and the gifts of peace, prosperity and good health in the coming year.

PTO News

We hope everyone enjoyed the Kindergarten Holiday performance December 8th at our PTO night.

A Huge thank you to Amy Vallone and Rachel Lorenti for their hair feather expertise at our Fall Festival on November 8th.

Our Annual Book Fair was an awesome success due mostly to our wonderful volunteers that helped: Carole Loughlin, Danielle Shank, Amy Vallone, Jan Dudley, Leigh Ann Concha, Kim Mickey, Heather Dempsey, and Margie Colvin. Without you the Book Fair isn't possible! Thank you so much!

We still have lots of Smencils and Spirit Items available. We are raising money to buy "Clickers" (an interactive computer program) for each grade level. There will NOT be a PTO meeting in January .

ATTENTION!!!!

December 13th is the last day for the BOOK FAIR

We are still collecting Box Tops and Campbell Labels for education. You can drop them off at the front desk or give them to your teacher - thanks for supporting our school!

I want to wish everyone a very wonderful holiday!
