

Hartley Elementary School

Dear Families of Hartley:

Welcome to the 2017-2018 school year! I hope you've had a summer filled with fun and relaxation and are ready for another exciting year. It is my pleasure to serve as the newly-appointed principal of Hartley. My wife, who is a native St. Augustinian and I are delighted to be here with our two sons, Logan who will be in 5th grade at Hartley and Julian who be in 8th grade at Murray Middle School. I can't imagine being anywhere else as I begin my 17th year in education. During my career in public education I have been privileged to serve the communities of New York City, Fairfax County, Virginia and Montgomery County Public Schools (MCPS) of Maryland. I have taught third, fifth, and sixth grade in various elementary schools and also served as a dance specialist for kindergarten to fifth grade. As an administrator, I began as an assistant principal for four years and the served as a principal intern for two years more years. Most recently I served the last two years as the principal of Cashell Elementary, a National Blue Ribbon School in Rockville, Maryland. Prior to my career in education I enjoyed a very fulfilling 17 year career as a professional dancer performing throughout the United States and internationally. However, working with students, their families and the staff who shape young minds has been more fulfilling than any experience I had as a performing artist.

As many of you know, our school has a rich history of excellence and a sterling reputation as a community that cares for its members. With these core values in mind, the staff and I are very excited about the many opportunities for learning this year will bring.

In view of my being new to the community, I'd especially like to welcome the many students and parents who are also new to Hartley. Everything I have experienced since starting on July 5th tells me, you will love our school! We look forward to working with you and your children. I strongly encourage you to become as involved as you can in all school activities and events. Throughout the year the PTO will also let you know about all the wonderful things they do to support our school and the various ways you can become involved.

For those of you who are returning families, we look forward to your ongoing support as we partner together to ensure your children's continued success.

Our current enrollment is about 633 students in grades K through five. Our numbers though are changing every day and therefore could impact our staffing. We currently have five Kindergarten, six first grade, five second grade, seven third grade, five fourth grade, and six fifth grade classes. If you have been around long enough you know that this could change easily before the official school year starts. As a result, we are mindful about when we communicate class assignments.

I remember vividly when I was in elementary school how anxious my parents and I could become, which included wondering who my teacher would be. The Hartley staff demonstrates a great deal of care while considering many factors when arranging classes that will best meet the diverse needs of all our students. Rest assured, I am confident that your child is going to have a fantastic year,
